Designation of Officers.

The President shall wear a white rosette.
 The Secretary shall wear a red rosette.
 Each Director shall wear a blue rosette.

REGULATIONS.

The gates will open at nine o'clock, A. M., and close at sun-down of each day.
 Refreshments, of all kinds, will be furnished in abundance, at moderate prices.
 Saloons, with female attendants, will be prepared for lady visitors.
 No disorderly conduct will be permitted.
 No animal will be allowed to run at large on the grounds.
 Hitching stock to trees is prohibited. A violation of this rule subjects stock to exclusion from the grounds.
 Comfortable stalls for all animals for exhibition, will be furnished during the Fair, free of charge.
 Forage for stock can be procured at market prices.
 No entry fees will be charged in any department, except on stock, which will be charged ten per cent on the value of the premium contended for.
 All exhibitors will be required to purchase tickets.
 No committee-man shall act upon any article on which he is a contestant for a premium.
 No exhibitor will be allowed to remove his articles until the close of the Fair, unless by the permission of the President.
 Competitors cannot be present during the examination of the Judges, except at the request of the Judges.
 The Secretary will commence receiving articles on Monday the 17th of October. No article will be received after noon of the 19th.
 Articles will be returned, after the Fair, only on presentation of the card received from the Secretary.
 No person shall be allowed to inspect the Entry Book until after the award.
 The Directors on each Committee will be Superintendents, and organize said Committees on the first day.
 The Awarding Committees shall make their reports to the Superintendents as soon as their decision is made. The Superintendent shall make their reports to the Secretary.
 Officers of all other Mechanical and Agricultural Associations, and members of the Press throughout the world, are respectfully invited to attend.
 All persons exhibiting Crops will be required to give a written statement of the mode of culture, and furnish a certificate of two or more disinterested persons as to the quantity produced per acre.
 No one except the Awarding Committee on duty, and the officers of the Association, will be allowed inside the arena whilst the exhibition is going on.
 No spirituous liquors will be allowed to be brought within the enclosure. A violation of this rule subjects the parties to expulsion from the grounds.
 There will be a sufficient police force on the grounds day and night during the Fair, to keep order and guard articles on exhibition. To articles under the head of Sweepstakes, will be given premiums irrespective of locality. Articles under all other heads must be the products of Attala and adjoining counties.
